CIRCULAR

It has been observed during various arbitration proceedings arising out of the decisions of Chief Managers in various disputes that the terms of contract, at times are enforced in an arbitrary manner contrary to the provisions of the contract itself. This is giving rise to the litigation and arbitration proceedings.

So all Unit incharge are directed that whenever a lawful contract is entered into with service providers, the terms of the contract should strictly be compiled with. Arbitrary action is unnecessarily giving bad name and increases litigation which ultimately results into extra financial burden.
